CAUSE NO.:
A-14-CR-00213-SS

(1) MICHAEL TODD WOLFE,
Defendant.

ORDER

BE IT REMEMBERED on this day the Court received a letter purportedly from the defendant Michael Todd Wolfe, a copy of which is attached to this order and construed as a motion and is incorporated by reference here.

IT IS ORDERED that the "pleading motion to be housed at a facility other than U.S.P. Pollock and closer to Austin, Tx" is DISMISSED.

The undersigned has no jurisdiction over the Bureau of Prisons with regard to placement of prisoners. The only valid remedy Mr. Wolfe has is to get with his counselor and work hard to convince the Bureau of Prisons that placement nearer to Austin, Texas would be beneficial not only to Mr. Wolfe and his family, but also to the Bureau of Prisons.

SIGNED this the 31st day of July 2015.

Pleading Motion

To be housed at a Facility other than, U.S.P. Pollock, and closer to Austin, TX.

Reason

Life threat due to nature of case, and to be closer to children, wife, mother and elderly grandmother, who all live in Austin, TX. Wife and children are financially unable to travel to U.S.P. Pollock for visitation, and grandmother is suffering from C.O.P.D. and unable to travel for long durations of time.
